

Effective as from 25 April 2022.

1. Introduction

Welcome to Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. (a.k.a. "we" or "us" or the "Company"). We value our visitors' privacy. This privacy policy summarizes what information we might collect from a registered user or other visitor ("you"), and what we will and will not do with it. Please note that this privacy policy does not govern the collection and use of information by companies that Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. does not control, nor by individuals not employed or managed by Blue Wave Concepts, Inc.. If you visit a Web site that we mention or link to, be sure to review its privacy policy before providing the site with information.

2. What we do with your personally identifiable information

It is always up to you whether to disclose personally identifiable information to us, although if you elect not to do so, we reserve the right not to register you as a user or provide you with any products or services. Personally identifiable information means information that can be used to identify you as an individual, such as, for example:

- your name, company, email address, phone number, billing address, and shipping address
- your Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. user ID and password (if applicable)
- any account-preference information you provide us
- your computer's browser software and version
- your computer's domain name and IP address, indicating where your computer is located on the Internet, and possibly your geographic location
- session data for your login session, so that our computer can communicate with yours while you are logged in

If you do provide personally identifiable information to us, either directly or through a reseller or other business partner, we will:

- not sell or rent it to a third party without your permission - although unless you opt out (see below), we may use your contact information to provide you with information we believe you need to know or may find useful, such as (for example) news about our services and products and modifications to the Terms of Service;

- take commercially reasonable precautions to protect the information from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction;
- not use or disclose the information except:
 - as necessary to provide services or products you have ordered, such as (for example) by providing it to a carrier to deliver products you have ordered;
 - in other ways described in this privacy policy or to which you have otherwise consented;
 - in the aggregate with other information in such a way so that your identity cannot reasonably be determined (for example, statistical compilations);
 - as required by law, for example, in response to a subpoena or search warrant;
 - to outside auditors who have agreed to keep the information confidential;
 - as necessary to enforce the Terms of Service;
 - as necessary to protect the rights, safety, or property of Blue Wave Concepts, Inc., its users, or others; this may include (for example) exchanging information with other organizations for fraud protection and/or risk reduction.

3. Other information we collect

We may collect other information that cannot be readily used to identify you, such as (for example) the domain name and IP address of your computer. We may use this information, individually or in the aggregate, for technical administration of our Web site(s); research and development; customer- and account administration; and to help us focus our marketing efforts more precisely. The Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. service collects information about your Amazon AWS instances.

4. Cookies

Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. uses cookies to store personal data on your computer. We may also link information stored on your computer in cookies with personal data about specific individuals stored on our servers. If you set up your Web browser (for example, Internet Explorer or Firefox) so that cookies are not allowed, you might not be able to use some or all of the features of our Web site(s).

5. External data storage sites

We may store your data on servers provided by third party hosting vendors with whom we have contracted.

6. Your privacy responsibilities

To help protect your privacy, be sure:

- not to share your user ID or password with anyone else;
- to log off the Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. Web site when you are finished;
- to take customary precautions to guard against malware (viruses, Trojan horses, bots, etc.), for example by installing and updating suitable anti-virus software.
- to notify us immediately at sales@BlueWaveConcepts.com if you believe your account has been compromised.

7. Notice to users outside of the United States

Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. operations are located primarily in the United States. If you provide information to us, the information will be transferred out of your country to the United States. In addition, since the Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. service polls your AWS account periodically on your behalf, any information resulting from such polling is also likely to be transferred to the United States. In using the service and providing personal information to us, you are consenting to its storage and use as described herein.

8. Information collected from children

You must be at least 18 years old (and really smart) to use Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. Web site(s) and service(s). Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. does not knowingly collect information from children under 18. (See the U.S. Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.)

9. Changes to this privacy policy

We reserve the right to change this privacy policy as we deem necessary or appropriate because of legal compliance requirements or changes in our business practices. If you have provided us with an email address, we will endeavor to notify you, by email to that address, of any material change to how we will use personally identifiable information.

10. Questions or comments?

If you have questions or comments about the Blue Wave Concepts, Inc. privacy policy, send email to sales@BlueWaveConcepts.com, or contact us via any of the ways described in the About Us page at URL. Thank you for choosing Blue Wave Concepts, Inc.
